

Miscellaneous Information

Contributed by Kama Moiha
Friday, 17 August 2007
Last Updated Sunday, 01 November 2009

'Ohana Discounts:'Ohana discount is when 3 or more members of the same immediate family take hula.
Tuition

- Please check with Aunty Jas or Uncle Lincoln
General Event Participation

- Each 'Ohana will be responsible for the amount of two people dancing hula

Open Enrollment:

Open enrollment occurs twice a year, January and July. Applicant must be at least 5 years old, know left from right and be attentive to the instructor. If applicant has previously danced for another halau, permission must be granted by former kumu. All applicants are accepted at the discretion of the kumu

Promotions to upper level classes:All promotions are at the discretion of the kumu.

Performances:All Performances are at the discretion of the kumu.

Taking Breaks from the Halau:

- Payments made to the halau are non-refundable when taking a break or resigning the halau.

- Haumana deciding to take a break or resign from the halau should be respectful of the instructro and kumu and let them both know.

- All Haumana who ask to be placed on a break need to ask the kumu before returning to the halau and will be responsible for the current month's tuition and re-enrollment fee of $125.00

-